

Dawn Wind

Refrain:

Before the dawn wind rises,
before the shadows flee,
let us go to God's mountain of covenantal love.
O beloved, come with me,
O beloved, come with me,
O beloved, come with me.

1. I will seek you with all my heart.
God will be our joy and our gladness.
Draw me in your footsteps and let us run.
Set me like a seal on your heart. Refrain

2. Flame of God, that no flood can quench, is the gift of your love and joy.
Faithfully I promise and speak my word, for our love is stronger than death. Refrain

3. Come, beloved and let us go to the promised field of God's love.
There, the garden table is set to share, rarest fruits and wine of new life. Refrain

4. Look deep into the eyes of love, holy beauty now have we found.
With new breath of life we shall wake from sleep,
for the night is over and gone. Refrain
