

For I Shall See You Again

Refrain:

For I shall see you again,
your hearts filled with joy, a joy no one shall ever take from you. Repeat

1. You will know for certain my presence among you.
All you ask of Yahweh, in my name is sure to come to you.
2. Be for others a sign of joy, as you live beyond your suffering.
God, our God, has blessed us with fresh hope to be born again in risen love.
3. Mystery of God's fidelity turns within, throughout our journeys, leading us into the center where we find endless rhythms, boundless love of life.
4. 'Though I leave, you shall not be alone when the advocate of God's own love comes to fire each heart in all the world with energy to be gift, creating, healing. Refrain
