

For We Are Free

1. Soon it will be morning and all our anguish will be transformed as the promise of a new day becomes for us a song we've always known.

2. Shadows of the past
 no longer linger, our fears have fled;
 for we are free at last to be ourselves again
 and we shall live forever.

3. Now I know for certain that what is deepest within our spirit
 Is the gift to be a lover:
 this is the meaning of the human heart.

4. Will you have the courage to look for wholeness and even peace?
 Our truth is born each moment
 as we let our hope become a lived reality.
