Let There Be a Feast

Refrain:
> Let there be a feast!
> The celebration begin!
> For we who were dead have been brought back to life.
> Once lost, we have been found!

1. Spread the table of welcome with bread enough to share.
   Let the joy of the harvest flow, and come to the feast! Refrain

2. A place is set for each and all, our names proclaimed with joy, wine of grace upon our lips, and healing for our hearts. Refrain

3. God's love is home for ev'ry-one, where fear no longer reigns.
   Here no one is turned away, nor left with songs unsung. Refrain

4. The arms of love embrace us, with peace deep as the sea.
   Our lives woven together, the doves of hope set free. Refrain

5. This world can be a banquet, with place enough for all.
   Share the gifts we have received; become the bread of love. Refrain
