

Many the Deaths, Lord

Refrain:

Many the deaths, Lord, that weave through our life.
Beyond all anguish you wait:
we rise in light.
Deep in our heart, Lord, we hunger for truth and freedom to grow strong in love:
to give others life.

1. Take us to the wide and open land of new life.
Name us with new names and we shall revel in joy.
With the loneliness of pain where do we go?
Is there meaning in the many faces of death? Refrain
2. Born of spirit we renew our choice to live in the risenness of Jesus, light of our life.
Peace, the bread we share and joy the wine that we drink:
feast for all who seek to know God's presence on earth. Refrain
