

Moments to Live By

1. Moments to live by, when we are open to the great wonder of life in each other's hands.

2. Sharing and caring the heart of our person, living our life in the myst'ry beyond all our dreams.

Would you but ask: "Can it be?"
Words cannot tell, come and see!
The center comes clear---all that we are and want to be.

3. Certain as mountains rings he who calls us:
life is for living, each moment, every day.

4. Clouds of unknowing can't steal our vision
If we keep present the hopes we have so deeply shared.

Would you but ask: "Can it be?"
Words cannot tell, come and see!
The center comes clear---all that we are, and want to be.

Repeat verse 1.
