

Psalm 118 (Antiphon: Let All the Earth Proclaim)

Antiphon:

Let all the earth proclaim the marvels of our God.
“Your love endures without end.”

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. We give thanks to you, for you are so good, you answered, “Your love endures without end.” | 10. I will thank you, God, for for you heard my voice. |
| 2. Let the children of Israel say, have made.
“Your love endures without end.” | 11. This is the day which you
We rejoice and are glad. |
| 3. Let the children of Aaron say, depths
“Your love endures without end.” | 12. We praise you from the
of our hearts,
for you are our light. |
| 4. Let those who revere God say,
you are so
“Your love endures without end.”
without end.” | 13. We give you thanks, for good, “Your love endures |
| 5. We called to you in our distress.
You answered and set us free.
Christ, | 14. To you, the giver of all life,
through your Word, Jesus |
| 6. You are at our side so we shall not fear.
midst,
You come to our relief. | 15. with your Spirit, in our
be praise forevermore. |

Antiphon

7. You are at our side as our helper.
In your care we shall stand firm. Antiphon
8. Open the gates of justice to us, to enter and give thanks.
9. This is the gate which our God made,
where all who wish may come in.