Arise, Cry Out In the Night

1.  Arise, cry out in the night,
    in early morning,
    still and cool with darkness.

2.  Pour out your heart like water
    before your God.
    In certain trust,
    lift your hands and heart
    to the Lord.

©1977 The Benedictine Foundation of the State of Vermont, Inc.

God Is Spirit

1.  God is spirit
    and when we worship,
    we are to do so
    in spirit and in truth.

©1977 The Benedictine Foundation of the State of Vermont, Inc.

I Thank You, God

I thank you, God,
with all my heart,
as I think of your wonders one by one;
with joy and praise for your holy name
I sing of your loving kindness.
Alleluia.

© 1977 The Benedictine Foundation of the State of Vermont, Inc.

May the Love, the Light and Joy

May the love, the light and joy
of God's spirit grow within you, strengthening all the good
that you shall be for others.

© 1977 The Benedictine Foundation of the State of Vermont, Inc.

May We Never Be Far

May we never be far from you, O God:
our life, our breath and our joy!

O Come to the Waters

1.     O come to the waters,
you who thirst,
come to me;
listen,
listen and you shall live.

O God, Be Faithful with Us

O God, be faithful with us;
may your spirit of justice and compassion
be free to move among us.

Those Who Live By the Truth

Those who live by the truth
are seen clearly in the light;
and we know that what they do
is simply done in God.

Wisdom

Wisdom: her light is ever brilliant and will not fade.
She is easily seen by all who love her,
and is certain to be known
by those eager to receive her.

Your Word, O Lord

Your word, O Lord:
let it be rooted in us;
and may your spirit
move us to forgiveness
and compassion.