

When Someone We Love

1. When someone we love so carefully grows
with courage and struggle to let love be their home,
we sing, yes we dance--- and share our delight
to witness such beauty and strength, O so right!
We love you, dear friend and we treasure your life;
we tenderly hold you in the palm of our hands.
2. The joy that you've found is gift for us all,
it glows like the velvet of a crystal moon night.
Over the years the choices you've made
have clothed you with freedom to nurture, to heal.
We love you dear friend and we treasure your life;
we tenderly hold you in the palm of our hands.
3. And as we move on to horizons of light,
we hope for each other: drink deeply of life.
To know and to love, to choose and to share:
this is the garden where happiness dwells.
We love you dear friend and we treasure your life;
we tenderly hold you in the palm of our hands.
