

With Broken Bread in Our Hands

Refrain:

With broken bread in our hands,
your word a fire in our hearts,
we now proclaim our own myst'ry:
in this journey from death into your new life,
we are your bread, we your body.

1. Seed of our longing, scattered in hope,
planted in our earth, bear us new life.
Bread of God's future, wine of our freedom,
Jesus, companion, be at our side. Refrain
2. "All who are thirsty, draw near to me.
All who know hunger, take now and eat.
I promise to give you, deep in your heart, fountains of water, Spirit of love." Refrain
3. "Each time you gather, remember me.
I, who am least of all, come follow me.
As bread for your journey, I'll be where I promised:
among the lowly, Emmanuel." Refrain
4. One is the bread which, for others, we break.
One is our blessing cup, poured out in thanks.
We from so many races and lands form but one Body, sing but one song. Refrain
5. We are your bread now, we are your wine.
We bear your Spirit, breath of your life.
Send us with peace now, give us your courage,
make us your justice, light of your light. Refrain
