

O With What Joy

O with what joy we sing of Mary,
a woman of great love, whose openness and loving kindness, gave birth to God's own son.
Mary, O so gentle and discreet, be with us as we pray to know the whisper of his presence, the wonder of his love.